Paul Schulte, Ph.D., Director

Dear Sir,

I am looking through your draft document "Current Intelligence Bulletin (CIB):"

A Strategy for Assigning the New NIOSH Skin Notations for Chemicals" and notice that you mention on page 15:

BgVV German Federal Institute for Health Protection of Consumers and Veterinary Medicine

I would like to inform you that the name of the institute was changed in Nov. 2002 to:

Bundesinstituts für Risikobewertung, which is in English:
Federal Institute for Risk Assessment

Sincerely,
N Sobier-Maier
